CANAL POINT

Mrs. W. J. Pernigan and son Billy returned today from Haines City where they spent several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jess Smith.

Mrs. W. E. Vann left last Saturday to spend the week-end with her son, Gordon, student at Florida Military Academy at St. Petersburg. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jess Elliott as far as Lakeland where Mrs. J. C. Wheeler and family. The ladies returned to Canal Point the middle of the week.

Mrs. C. G. Coburn and her house guest, Mrs. Mary Marshall of Melrose, Mass., spent several days at Miami Beach this week, motel-ing to the resort city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Gieger motored to Melbourne Tuesday where Mr. Gieger attended to business matters relating to his property there. They were accompanied by West Palm Beach by Bill Gieger who visited his family in the east coast town.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Richmond and Henry Lovett returned to Melrose Tuesday morning after a week-end visiting that evening.

Mrs. Olin Coward returned Sunday from Melbourne where she spent a week visiting her mother and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, winter residents of St. Petersburg, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Coburn. Mr. Miller owns business property in Canal Point and was over to see what developments had taken place since last year. The Millers and Coburns were former neighbors in Massachusetts and Mr. Miller became interested in Canal Point following the establishment of Mr. Coburn's business.

ENTERTAINMENT
PORT MAYACA
Mrs. P. M. Hoenel and Mrs.
Gertrude Colby entertained at the Hoenel home at Port Mayaca Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs.
Mary Marshall, house guest of Mrs. C. G. Coburn of Canal Point.

Two tables of contract were in play and Mrs. G. L. Sims received high score award. Mrs. Marshall was presented the guest prize. A salad course was served following the games. Those present besides the hostesses were Mrs. G. L. Sims, Mrs. George Kingsley, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Leak, Mrs. Deckman, Mrs. C. G. Coburn and Mrs. Powers of Miami, house guest of Mrs.
Colby.

MRS. SIMS ENTERTAINS
CONTRACT CLUB
Mrs. G. L. Sims entertained the Contract Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon with two tables in play.
Mrs. George Kingsley received award for high score. The hostess served, strawberry mousse and coffee as refreshment. Those present were Mrs. Gertrude Colby, Mrs. H. L. Speer, Mrs. A. Hansen, Mrs. Jesse Trimble, Mrs. L.
L. Shirley, Mrs. Kingsley and Mrs.
Deckman.

Evangelist Frank Dudley Starts Lecture Series At Pahokee On Sunday

Evangelist Frank Dudley, who conducted a tent meeting in Belle Glade last winter, will open a series of bible lectures at Pahokee Sunday night. His tent is located opposite the high school building on Pahokee Canal Point.

Mr. Dudley has a powerful stereo-phonograph with 2000 slides which will bring before his hearers spectacular illustrations of bible quaints will be shown on the screen and special concerts will be presented.

Mr. Dudley says "these meetings are different from anything ever before in the town. They will be educational, texts will be on the screen that all may read for themselves. Pictures with the texts will make every subject clear. A question box will be provided for those who wish fuller explanation of any text or subject."

The subject at the opening meeting will be "Who is the devil?" Did God ever create a bad devil?
Do devils exist? Are they free and all are invited.

MRS. COBURN
HOSTESS
The Canal Point contract club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. C. G. Coburn with two additional guest tables supplementing the usual club of Mrs. P. M.
Hoenel. Mrs. Coburn was awarded high score prize and Mrs. Sims received the consolation prize. Guest prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. W.
Fowler, Mrs. Mary Marshall and Mrs. George Kingsley. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. H. L. Speer.

Those present were Mrs. A. Hansen, Mrs. George Kingsley, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Leak, Mrs. Deckman,
Mrs. C. G. Coburn and Mrs. Powers of Miami, house guest of Mrs.
Colby.

Hovel, superintendent.
Morning service, 11 a. m. A. Q.
Subject: "A Vision of God."
Evening service, 7:30 p. m. A. Q.
Subject: "Old Time Religion."
The certificates for the Leaders Training Institute held last week will be presented at the evening service.

PRAYER MEETING, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. at the parsonage.
Junior League, Thursday, 3:30 p. m.
Sarah Everett, superintendent.
A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend all of the services of the church. Come and worship with us.

CHURCH PLAY
The "villain" appeared on Wednesday and stopped the wedding of "Uncle Jim Gump," which was being celebrated. He will appear next night, Feb. 16, to stop the wedding at the M. E. church which is being sponsored by the Epworth League, but this time he will fail to accomplish his purpose for the young people have given assurance that "Uncle Jim" will be married at that time without fail. There will be present all of the members of the "Comic Strip" from "Comiville" to take part in that event, so if you want to enjoy a good laugh be sure to reserve that date and see the "great event." There will be about 35 in the cast of the play and you can see them all in action.
The play is being given to benefit the church fund. The tickets will be 10 cents for children, 25 cents for adults. Come and bring the whole family.

The "tag day" that was held last Saturday resulted in nearly $17.00 for the church fund. We wish to express the sincere thanks of the official board and church for those who helped make it a success.

The floor of the balcony of the church has been elevated and seated which gives us over 60 additional seats as well as three more than rooms for the church school.
The seating capacity of the church is now about 250.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

NEWS FROM THE GRADES
FIRST GRADE
Mrs. C. R. Wetherington, our first grade teacher, visited us Friday afternoon. She brought us some tangu-ettes. We had a Valentine party in our room Wednesday. We opened our Valentine box and every girl received candy and valentines.

SECOND GRADE
Our room mother, Mrs. Richmond visited us Friday and treated us to candy.

Mrs. McCoy visited us during reading period Monday. The last half hour on Wednesday we opened our Valentine box and distributed many beautiful Valentines.

THIRD GRADE
We enjoyed our Valentine box this afternoon. Mrs. Gilliland, our room mother, visited us and we received candy and valentines. We also had a fruit and candy reception.

We have two new pet plants for our room.

FOURTH GRADE
Although February is the shortest month, it is the month in which most of our American heroes were born. It is known as the month of the Red, White, and blue month. We will now renew our pledge of allegiance to "Old Glory" this month. Our famous aviator, Charles A. Lindbergh's birthday was Feb. 4. Abraham Lincoln's was the 12th, and the father of our country George Washington's is on the 22nd of Feb.

We spent some time talking about Lincoln. We each one wish to be like Lincoln and acquire some of his good qualities.

We have a spelling honor roll now. Those having perfect papers for the past week were Ruby Alman, John Harrington, Bill Adams, Sylvia McCoy, Ophelia Baker, Babs McConnell and Molly Sims. We hope we may add other names to this list next week.

We spent some time thinking of Valentines for some time now. We drew Valentines during our drawing period the other day. It is hoped that we will always remember the true spirit of Valentine—that of love, kindness, and helpfulness to others. Our teacher told us the story of the origin of Valentine and read us some pretty poems about Valentine Day before we had our Valentine box. A committee of Babs O'Connell and Dorothy Tucker made our lovely Valentine box. We felt that St. Valentine was good to us for we received a treat of cake and candy as well as many pretty valentines.

FIFTH GRADE
We have enjoyed Valentine's day. We had a pretty red and white valentine box and many valentines were given and received.
We had a little treat from our teacher of huge sticks of red and white candy and hearts with verses on them. Something like Christmas, the Valentine spirit is love and friendship.

Miss Royal, of grade three, played St. Valentine at our door this morning with a beautiful bouquet.
Thanks, Miss Royal.

On Monday we picked sweet peas from the school flower garden. We thank Mr. Speer for the courtesy.

We wrote two short stories last week, one about Benjamin Franklin and the other about Tom Sawyer.
We were told that we wrote too much about Tom and did not use very good English. We shall do better next time.

In last Friday's speed test in addition of fractions, Tiny Todd made 100 per cent, finishing in six minutes. Harris Nobles made 99, finishing in 4 1/2 minutes; Annie Laurie Doman 98 per cent, finishing in 4 minutes; Vera Mae Meeks 99 per cent finishing in 10 minutes and Richard Howell 96 per cent in 11 minutes.

In today's spelling contest these pupils stood through the spelling of five lessons: Tiny Todd, Eddie Walls, Gene Barwick, Christine Bell, Marion Chauncey, Pearl Hendry, Katherine Shearer, Ella Wilkinson, Charlie Yeomans, Vera Simmons and June Sims.

We have started rehearsals for our chapel program next week.

SIXTH GRADE
Wednesday afternoon we enjoyed an exchange of Valentines. Most of us received several pretty ones.
Our last week's spelling honor roll contained only one name—Marie Gaskins. We wonder if our words aren't getting harder.

We have had beautiful gladness to brighten up our room this week.
Frances Egan and Geraldine Nobles brought them.

Our boys have already started work on a play for our next chapel program.

SEVENTH GRADE
Mrs. Goodaby went home Wednesday with the measles, for which we are very sorry. We hope she can be back soon.

The seventh and eighth grade girls are selling candy for athletic equipment.

What a grand time we had Valentine Day. Everybody seemed to be satisfied with their valentine.

CARD OF THANKS
We want to thank our friends for their kindness and sympathy extended to us following the death of our father and grandfather, D.
F. Simmons.

Ed Simmons and family.

YOUTHFUL CAST TEAM TO MAKE HILARIO SHOW

"Eight Girls in a Boat," opening Sunday at Prince Theatre, Pahokee, is unquestionably one of the most notable—the most beautiful and poignant productions to come out of Hollywood in a year.

The audience at the opening of the Charles R. Rogers Paramount picture laughed and wept with the players. Don't let the absence of names like Mae West or Marlene Dietrich fool you. Here is a powerful production.

It is the story of a school-girl, young, fresh, innocent, full of Dorothy Wilson, a girl heretofore of small roles in Hollywood, branches forth into a part of glorious proportions. Douglas, Monigomery makes the role really live.

Kay Johnson has a role of great strength as the physical instruc-tress in the girls' school, first a domineering task-master, and then soft, gentle and sympathetic to only a woman can be.

The picture is dotted with attractive girls, principally eight contest winners who are making their debuts in this film.

The mere fact that the players are comparatively unknown makes the appeal of the picture greater, makes it possible for you to believe that every girl in the part she is portraying. You have no prejudices, no preconceived notions about the type of role the girls can do. You accept what they play and believe it.
